

- (h) Rehabilitation Therapy Society
 - (i) Education Students Society
 - (j) M.B.A. Students Society
 - (k) Phys-Ed Students Society
 - (l) Concurrent Education Students' Association
- (iii) (a) two representatives from the MCRC
 (b) one representative from J.R.H.C.

The number of representatives from each member society will be based on the formula set out in subsection 5.01.02. The numbers of representatives for the future Assembly will be made known to the current Assembly at its first regularly convened meeting in the winter term.

5.01.02 The number of representatives for the future Assembly for each of the member societies listed in paragraph ii) of subsection 5.01.01, shall be determined using the most recently available enrollment figures from the Registrar's Office, and based on the following formula:

No. of Full-Time Registered Students No. of Reps.

more than 5,000	10
4,000 - 5,000	8
3,000 - 3,999	7
2,000 - 2,999	6
1,000 - 1,999	5
500 - 999	4
400 - 499	3
300 - 399	2
less than 300	1

5.01.03 Where the actual number of full-time registered students in a member society is less than the planned number of such students and this deviation, by the operation of subsection 5.01.02, results in a decrease in the number of the member society's Assembly representatives, if the deviation between the actual and planned enrollment amounts to five (5) or less students then the number of full-time registered students in the member society shall be deemed to be the planned number of such students for the purposes of subsection 5.01.02.

5.01.04 Representatives from the member societies shall be chosen in a manner determined by the member society, provided that each such representative shall be popularly elected either:

- (i) by all members of the member society; or
- (ii) by all the members of a part of the member society, where each comparable part has an equal opportunity to elect a representative or representatives.

5.01.05 The non-elected non-voting members of the Assembly may include:

- (i) (a) a Speaker, who shall be appointed by the new voting members of the Assembly as soon as possible after they have been installed. The Speaker shall chair all meetings of the Assembly, and shall enforce the Rules of Order as outlined in part 8;
(b) a deputy Speaker from the voting members of the Assembly who will assume the duties of Speaker in the event of his/her absence;
- (ii) a Secretary, who shall be a paid employee of the Society;
- (iii) an Honorary President, who shall be a graduate, a member of the academic or administrative staff of the University or a friend of the University. He/She shall be appointed annually by the Assembly upon the recommendation of the Council;
- (iv) student observers from the Graduate Student Society;
- (v) the Rector;
- (vi) persons appointed by the Board as non-elected non-voting members of the Assembly for the purpose of enabling them to qualify as Directors of the Corporation;
- (vii) the President of the Graduate Student Student Society whose role would be limited to speaking on behalf of the G.S.S. Executive Committee or GSS Council;
- (viii) the members of AMS Council.

Section 5.02 Terms of Reference of the Assembly

5.02.01 The Assembly is the ultimate decision-making body for the non-service, policy and political affairs of the Society. The Assembly has full power, within the restrictions of this Constitution, to create, alter and/or terminate any policy statements,
